

Values → (not) doctrinal statement

→ (not) functions of the church (not what we do, but what characterizes everything we do)

are the shared convictions that guide our actions and reveal our strengths

The Spirit leads

The Scripture speaks

① leadership

following is expected

② followship (expectation)

Mission is for every one every day

Helping one another actually follow Jesus every day

- * One cohesive message w/ tagline
- * Its short & URL
- * Don't need initials (NEHBC)
- * Its simple
- * Like it don't love it
- Negative connotation of follower not leader
- What does it mean? Is it cultish

NEW MISSION

Helping one another
[actually] follow
Jesus every day

[vigorously]

[real time]

[up to date]

[in truth]

1. Biblically Rooted

3. Mission Minded

4. Committed to Growth multiple levels

2. Sensitive to the Spirit

MISSION LIKE BEST

- (*) I can pray it - this is what I want to do today
- (*) Its never completed; its lifelong
- (*) Peter - called & recalled bookends in the book of John
- (*) Correction & rebuke btw Paul and Peter
- (*) All of the biblical references (Deny himself & follow)
- (*) It helps you examine yourself
- (*) Its done in community: to help and to be helping
- (*) Failure allowed

- * Culls each person - activates all gifts
- * Challenging enough for Upper Room, yet simple enough to get there "lower room attention"
- * Actually points to the stairs
- * It applies to oldest/youngest or weakest/strongest — anyone can be helper or helped
- * It helps the person on the outside know what's on the inside
- * Easy to remember, easy to use conversationally, not preachy/churchy
- * Helper image of the bride

KINGDOM CONCEPT

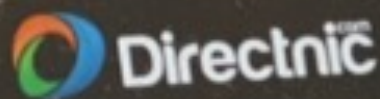

1 Tim 2:1-4, Matt 28:19-20, Rom 12:1-2

Empowering a vision-focused, Sacrificial & Evangelistically capable congregation. in a transient, diverse community that is lacking identity [fragmented] with a deep passion for being biblically rooted, rescuing the lost and expecting lifelong growth in godliness
